Federal regulations require parents to have the primary responsibility to pay for a dependent student’s educational expenses. None of the conditions listed below, singly or in combination, qualify as unusual circumstances meriting a dependency override:

- Parents refuse to contribute to the student’s education;
- Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for verification;
- Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes;
- Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

MACC understands unusual circumstances occur and some students may have a unique family situation. This form is used for reporting your unique situation when you are not able to obtain parental information. If you believe you have an unusual or unique family situation, please complete this form and submit all required documents to the Financial Aid Office. Please note, all decisions are made at the discretion and professional judgment of the MACC Financial Aid Office. Submission of this form and supporting documents does not guarantee approval.

The law requires a determination of unusual circumstances for a dependency override be made each award year. A decision made in one award year does not automatically mean a student would be deemed independent in another year. Also, a dependency override performed at another school will not warrant a dependency override at MACC.

Students should be aware that MACC is not required to perform dependency overrides, and if the financial aid administrator determines an override is not appropriate, the decision cannot be appealed.

1) You are automatically considered to be independent and do not need to submit this form if any of the following applies. If you answer No to all of these questions, proceed to #2:

3) Check the reason that best applies to your situation. I do not meet any of the criteria listed in #1 or #2, and I am unable to provide my parents’ information on my 2020-2021 FAFSA because:

- I have contact with my parents but my parents refuse to complete the FAFSA and do not and will not provide me any financial support.

   Please read next paragraph and submit required notarized statement from your parents with this form; however, you do not need to answer #4 - #6, nor do you have to submit documents requested in #5. You will only be eligible for an unsubsidized loan at the dependent student grade level limit. Your parents’ refusal to complete the FAFSA or their unwillingness to provide financial support does not justify a dependency override. Your parents must write and sign a statement indicating they refuse to provide you the information you need for your FAFSA and they do not and will not provide you any financial support. The statement must include the date the support ended. The statement must be notarized; you may use the Dependency Status Petition Reference Form for this.

- Other - I have an unusual situation not listed above. Go to #4.

4) Check the reason that best describes your situation:

- I have been separated from my parents due to an unsafe home environment.

- I have been separated from my parents due to unusual circumstances and I live with a relative or friend who is providing support, or live alone.

- Since completing the 2020-2021 FAFSA, my marital status has changed from single to married. I am requesting an update to my 2020-2021 FAFSA to reflect more accurately my ability to pay my educational expenses.
  - You must submit a copy of your marriage license. Also include all items listed in #5.
  - You must add your spouse’s 2018 income information to your 2020-2021 FAFSA.
5) Submit the following information with this form:
   - A detailed letter from you explaining the following, a) the unusual situation selected above; b) name and address of both your parents; c) the last time you had contact with each of your parents – when, where, and the nature of the contact; d) how you have provided for yourself, or explain if someone else has supported you; and e) when you started meeting your expenses without parental support.
   - The 2020-2021 V1 Verification Worksheet and all necessary documents for the Verification process as listed in the Checklist on page 1 of the Verification Worksheet, including but not limited to: a copy of your 2018 and 2019 Federal Tax Return or Tax Return Transcript (if filed); must provide statement of non-filer. If appealing due to becoming married, a copy of your and your spouse’s 2018 and 2019 Federal Tax Return or Tax Return Transcript (if filed) and a copy of all W-2 income statements.
   - Completed 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid at www.FAFSA.gov. If you are unable to provide parent information you must answer the questions about yourself and answer the question on your FAFSA to indicate you are submitting without parent information. MACC will make the appropriate updates to your FAFSA if this appeal is approved. If this appeal is denied, you must resubmit the FAFSA with your parent(s)’ information.
   - Two (2) Dependency Status Petition Reference Forms. The Petition requires statements from at least TWO references familiar with the family situation. At least one of the references must be from a third-party who is not a family member. Examples of third-party references include: teachers, pastor/priest, guidance counselor, social worker, mental health counselor, law enforcement official, and/or physician.
   - A copy of your most recent cell phone bill. If unavailable, provide explanation in your personal letter, including who pays for the cell phone and what your relationship is to the person(s).
   - A copy of your current lease agreement or mortgage statement. If unavailable, provide explanation in your personal letter, including where you live, who pays for the residence and utilities, and what your relationship is to the person(s).
   - A copy of your proof of health insurance and an explanation of who pays for your insurance. If unavailable, provide explanation in your personal letter as to why you do not have health insurance.
   - A copy of your proof of vehicle insurance. If unavailable, provide explanation including who pays for the insurance and what your relationship is to the person(s).

6) Please check one:
   - [ ] This is my first dependency status review.
   - [ ] I am applying for a renewal of a previous dependency status review granted at MACC.

The student named above is submitting a Dependency Status Petition to the Financial Aid Office at Moberly Area Community College based on unusual family circumstances. These circumstances may include: unsafe home environment, abuse, neglect, and/or abandonment.

Federal regulations require parents to have the primary responsibility to pay for a dependent student’s educational expenses. None of the conditions listed below, singly or in combination, qualify as unusual circumstances meriting a dependency override:

- Parents refuse to contribute to the student’s education;
- Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for verification;
- Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes;
- Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

The Petition requires statements from at least TWO references familiar with the family situation. At least one of the references must be from a third-party who is not a family member. Examples of third-party references include: teachers, pastor/priest, guidance counselor, social worker, mental health counselor, law enforcement official, and/or physician.

In the space provided below and on the following page, please provide a detailed statement that will corroborate the student’s claims of unusual family circumstances. You must include: your relationship with this student, how long you have known him/her, and any/all details about the student’s family situation. You may attach an additional sheet, if necessary.

If a dependent student’s parents refuse to complete the FAFSA and are unwilling to provide financial support, but the student cannot demonstrate an unusual family situation, the student may be eligible for an unsubsidized student loan only. The parents must complete this form, explaining in the space below that they refuse to complete the FAFSA and refuse to provide any financial support, and must explain when the support ended. The form must be notarized.

All references must complete and sign this form. A third-party reference may attach statement on official letterhead instead of using space below; and, by doing so, will not require official notary public certification. Otherwise, all references must have this document notarized.
