If you do not have a copy, you may obtain a Federal Tax Return Transcript AND a W-2 wage and income from the IRS www.irs.gov or by phone 1-800-908-9946.
3. Submit a detailed, TYPED personalized letter from you (or parents, if dependent) describing your situation. If you are unable to provide any of the required supporting documentation you should include the reasons in your letter.
4. Provide a copy of your divorce decree or letter from your attorney or legal aid. — or —

If you have not consulted with an attorney or legal aid and do not have a court date for the divorce proceedings or are not pursuing a divorce at this time, you must still provide evidence of your separation. Submit ALL of the following:

- a. Two (2) Proof of Separation Reference Forms: You must attach TWO Proof of Separation Reference Forms to confirm your separation claim. At least one must be from a third-party person (not relative or friend) who can endorse your statement in his/her professional capacity. For example, your pastor or rabbi, marriage counselor, or social services case worker can provide such an endorsement. The second reference may be a family member or friend.
- b. Copies of documents which are in your name only and your spouse’s name only, such as utility bills, and bank statements. These documents must be dated with the current or most recent month.
- c. Copies of you and your spouse’s separate lease agreements to document separate addresses. These documents must be dated after the date of separation.
- d. Special documentation: As requested by the Financial Aid Office to help us determine if you are physically and financially separated from your spouse.

Your documents will be reviewed faster if they arrive as a group rather than one at a time – all documents should have your name, SSN, and/or MACC Student ID # included. Please allow 15-20 business days for processing. Attach all supporting documents to this form and submit in-person at the campus nearest you, or to:

Moberly Area Community College, Financial Aid Office, 101 College Avenue, Moberly, MO 65270 –or– Fax: (660) 269-9538.

Questions? Please call: (660) 263-4100 ext. 11301

By signing this form, I agree to provide additional information that will verify the accuracy of my information, if requested. If I purposely give false or misleading information, I will be referred to the United States Department of Education’s Inspector General. If I purposely give false or misleading information in order to qualify for Title IV funds, I may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

The student named above is submitting a Proof of Separation Form to the Financial Aid Office at Moberly Area Community College (MACC) based on the student's or his/her parents' marital status. The U.S. Department of Education requires Moberly Area Community College to verify a student is (or parents are) in fact separated. Before the student's eligibility for federal and state financial assistance can be determined, the Proof of Separation form and all required documentation, including a Proof of Separation Reference Form. At least one reference must be a third-party person who can endorse the student's or his/her parents' separated status. Examples of third-party references include: pastor or rabbi, marriage counselor, or social services case worker. The other reference may be a family member or friend.

In the space provided below and on the following page, please provide a detailed statement to corroborate the student's (or student's parent's) claims of separated status. You must include: your relationship with this student (and student's parent, if applicable), how long you have known him/her, and any/all details about the student's (and student's parents, if applicable) family situation. You may attach an additional sheet, if necessary.

If a student or his/her parent indicated a separated status on the FAFSA, but the student or his/her parent cannot provide evidence of separated status, the student may be required to add his/her or his/her parent's spouse's information to the 2022-2023 FAFSA. The form must be notarized.

All references must complete and sign this form. A third-party reference may attach statement on official letterhead instead of using space below; and, by doing so, will not require official notary public certification. Otherwise, all references must have this document notarized.
