Catalog Description: PHY164 Atmospheric Science (3-0-3)
This is an introductory course covering the fundamental principles of meteorology and provides insight into atmospheric phenomena including weather, optical effects, and physical forces influencing air circulation in the earth’s atmosphere. This course does not include a laboratory component.

Prerequisite/Co-requisite: None

Text: The text is an ebook included with the class. There is no print option available in the MACC bookstore.
Title: Essentials of Meteorology
Author: Ahrens
Edition: 8th Edition
Publisher: Cengage

Other Required Materials: None

Purpose of Course: To demonstrate an understanding of physical scientific principles in order to solve problems and make informed decisions.

Course Objectives: The general objectives for atmospheric science are:
• To develop an appreciation of atmospheric science
• To develop a basic understanding of the principles that explains the formation of meteorological phenomena

Course Content:
• Earth and Its Atmosphere.
• Energy: Warming the Earth and the Atmosphere.
• Seasonal and Daily Temperatures.
• Atmospheric Humidity.
• Condensation: Dew, Fog, and Clouds.
• Stability and Cloud Development.
• Precipitation.
• Air Pressure and Winds.
• Wind: Small-Scale and Local Systems.
• Wind: Global Systems.
• Air Masses and Fronts.
• Middle-Latitude Cyclones.
• Weather Forecasting.
• Thunderstorms.
• Tornadoes.
• Hurricanes.
• Earth’s Changing Climate.
• Global Climate.
• Air Pollution.
• Light, Color, and Atmospheric Optics

Assessment of Student Learning: Grades will be based on tests, quizzes, projects, homework and final exam.

Tests/Exams (≥60% and up to 40% other—quizzes, homework, projects)

Grading Scale:
90 - 100% A
80 - 89% B
70 - 79% C
60 - 69% D
Below 60% F

Expected Study Time Commitments: Students should expect to spend approximately 2 to 4 hours per week studying, reading, and working on assignments for each registered credit hour. For example, 6 to 12 study hours per week may be expected for a 3 credit hour class.

Description of Major Assignments(s): Per instructor’s policy

Schedule of Student Assignments/Activities: Per instructor’s policy

Statement to Connect course with General Education Outcomes: In compliance with MACC’s general education outcomes, the student who successfully completes this course will be able to:

• Higher Order Thinking: Students will demonstrate the ability to distinguish among opinions, facts, and inferences; to identify underlying or implicit assumptions; to make informed judgments; to solve problems by applying evaluative standards; and to reflect upon and refine those problem-solving skills. This outcome involves creative thinking, critical thinking, and quantitative literacy.

- Managing Information: Students will demonstrate the ability to discern when there is a need for information; and to identify, locate, evaluate, and effectively and responsibly use and share that information for the problem at hand.

- Valuing: Students will demonstrate the ability to understand the moral and ethical values of a diverse society; and to appreciate the values of diversity, equity, and sustainability.

College / Instructor Policies:

Academic Dishonesty: MACC board policy is as follows: “Academic dishonesty by students damages institutional credibility and unfairly jeopardizes honest students; therefore, it will not be tolerated in any form.” Forms of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following: violations of copyright law, plagiarism, fabrication, cheating, collusion, and other academic misconduct. Incidents of dishonesty regarding assignments, examinations, classroom/laboratory activities, and/or the submission of misleading or false information to the College will be treated seriously. The procedure for handling academic dishonesty is outlined in the Student Handbook (Policy Handbook M.010). In cases of alleged academic dishonesty, the burden of proof is on the student, not on the instructor.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all class sessions for which they are enrolled. The College reserves the right to drop or withdraw students from courses due to lack of attendance.

Students need to be aware that dropping/being dropped from a course and their last date of attendance in the course may impact their financial aid.

MACC faculty are required to track attendance and report lack of attendance. An instructor must complete the appropriate steps to drop a student within one week following the student’s violation of the attendance policy. Additionally, a student’s attendance rate will be calculated based upon the first day the academic session begins (not the student’s date of enrollment in the course). If a student does not attend a course as defined below, the student will be dropped as “Never Attended.”

Term Length Drop Calculations

16-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive weeks of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

8-week: Any student who misses one (1) consecutive week of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

4-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive days of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.
Intersession: Any student who misses one (1) day of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

Acceptable justification may include, but is not limited to, family emergencies, illness or injury, college-approved co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, and religious holidays.

Simply logging into the Learning Management System (Canvas) and/or accessing the course and course related material does not constitute active participation for the online component of hybrid courses or for online courses. (Policy Handbook, I.090 & M.095)

Attend class. Excessive absence (in excess of 25% of class periods held) can result in an instructor initiated student drop. There are no make-up exams.

Tardiness: Per instructor policy

Make-up and late work: No make-up exams

Extra-credit work: None; learn course material for credit

Student Email: MACC Mail is the official student email system at MACC. Official college communication is sent via this email system. Students are responsible for checking their MACC Mail account regularly. Students may also receive notifications and reminders from MACC through the online learning platform. However, students should remain aware that the online learning platform messaging system and MACC Mail (student email) system are two separate systems.

ADA Statement: Students who have disabilities that qualify under the Americans with Disabilities Act may register for assistance through the Office of Access and ADA Services. Students are invited to contact the Access Office to confidentially discuss disability information, academic accommodations, appropriate documentation and procedures. For more information, please call either the Moberly office at (660) 263-4100 x11240 or the Columbia office at (573) 234-1067 x12120, or visit our web page at http://www.macc.edu/index.php/services/access-office.

Title IX Statement: MACC maintains a strict policy prohibiting sexual misconduct in any form, including sexual harassment, sexual discrimination, and sexual violence. All MACC employees, including faculty members, are considered mandated reporters of sexual misconduct and as such are expected to contact the Title IX Coordinator when they become aware, in conversation or in writing, of an incident of sexual misconduct. For more information on this policy or to learn about support resources, please see http://www.macc.edu/sexual-misconduct-policy (links to an external site) or contact Ms. Cheryl Lybarger, MACC’s Title IX Coordinator, at 660-263-4110, ext. 11369 or CherylLybarger@macc.edu.
