Purpose of Course:
This course is a capstone to the Business Office Administration Program. In addition to meeting new objectives, students will review skills and knowledge attained in prior courses. At the end of the semester, the final program proficiency assessment (Office Proficiency Assessment and Certification - OPAC) will be administered and the results will be used to determine if the student has attained the essential skills and knowledge required in the Business Office Administration Program. Students will also continue to take Microsoft Office Specialists exams in the Microsoft Suite of products.

Course Objectives:
• Students will demonstrate the skills and knowledge needed for working in the twenty-first century office. This will include working effectively with teams, controlling time and stress, and behaving ethically in the workplace.
• Students will demonstrate technical skills needed to work successfully with computer hardware, computer software, and virtual situations.
• Students will demonstrate an understanding of the communication process and skills in oral communication, written communication, and presenting before groups.
• Students will apply what has been learned in the classroom to a real-world work simulation.
• Students will create an employment portfolio as a final project.
• Students will complete a final Business Office Administration Program assessment, Office Proficiency Assessment and Certification (OPAC), to measure their level of attainment in program essential skills.
• Students will achieve OPAC certification.
• Students will obtain Microsoft Office Specialist certification.

Course Content:
• Employment Skills
• Microsoft Office 2013 Projects, Integrated Simulation of Microsoft Office
• Microsoft Office Specialist Certification
• Employment Portfolio
• OPAC Posttest/Certification
• Team Project

Connection with Career & Technical Education (CTE) Outcome Statement:
In compliance with MACC’s CTE outcomes, the student who successfully completes this course will be able to:
• Students will demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills.
• Students will demonstrate an understanding of discipline-related math and scientific principles.
• Students will think critically while systematically assessing problems, identifying issues and implementing solutions.
• Students will apply principles of professionalism and safety standards when entering the workforce.

COLLEGE POLICIES:

Attendance:
Students are expected to attend all class sessions for which they are enrolled. The College reserves the right to drop or withdraw students from courses due to lack of attendance.

Students need to be aware that dropping/being dropped from a course and their last date of attendance in the course may impact their financial aid.

MACC faculty are required to track attendance and report lack of attendance. An instructor must complete the appropriate steps to drop a student within one week following the student’s violation of the attendance policy. Additionally, a student’s attendance rate will be calculated based upon the first day the academic session begins (not the student’s date of enrollment in the course). If a student does not attend a course as defined below, the student will be dropped as “Never Attended.”

Term Length Drop Calculations

16-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive weeks of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

8-week: Any student who misses one (1) consecutive week of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

4-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive days of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

Intersession: Any student who misses one (1) day of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

Acceptable justification may include, but is not limited to, family emergencies, illness or injury, college-approved co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, and religious holidays.

Academic Dishonesty:
MACC board policy is as follows: “Academic dishonesty by students damages institutional credibility and unfairly jeopardizes honest students; therefore, it will not be tolerated in any form.” Forms of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following: violations of copyright law, plagiarism, fabrication, cheating, collusion, and other academic misconduct. Incidents of dishonesty regarding assignments, examinations, classroom/laboratory activities, and/or the submission of misleading or false information to the College will be treated seriously. The procedure for handling academic dishonesty is outlined in the Student Handbook (Policy Handbook G.020). In cases of alleged academic dishonesty, the burden of proof is on the student, not on the instructor.

Recording Class Sessions Using Zoom:
The privacy of students is a priority in live or virtual meetings. Recordings of lectures or class meetings that share student information constitute an educational record and are protected under FERPA. Instructors may share recordings within the course section where they were originally recorded and only with the students enrolled in the section. Documented consent from each student identified in the recording is required to distribute outside of the course where it was originally recorded, or student identity must be redacted.
Student Email:
MACC Mail is the official student email system at MACC. Official college communication is sent via this email system. Students are responsible for checking their MACC Mail account regularly. Students may also receive notifications and reminders from MACC through the online learning platform. However, students should remain aware that the online learning platform messaging system and MACC Mail (student email) system are two separate systems.

ADA Statement:
Students who have disabilities that qualify under the Americans with Disabilities Act may register for assistance through the Office of Access and ADA Services. Students are invited to contact the Access Office to confidentially discuss disability information, academic accommodations, appropriate documentation and procedures. For more information, please call either the Moberly office at (660) 263-4100 Ext. 11240 or the Columbia office at (573) 234-1067 Ext. 12120, or visit our web page at http://www.macc.edu/index.php/services/access-office.

Title IX Statement:
MACC maintains a strict policy prohibiting sexual misconduct in any form, including sexual harassment, sexual discrimination, and sexual violence. All MACC employees, including faculty members, are considered mandated reporters of sexual misconduct and as such are expected to contact the Title IX Coordinator when they become aware, in conversation or in writing, of an incident of sexual misconduct. For more information on this policy or to learn about support resources, please see http://www.macc.edu/sexual-misconduct-policy or contact Ms. Cheryl Lybarger, MACC's Title IX Coordinator, at 660-263-4110, ext. 11369 or CherylLybarger@macc.edu.
