- Check here if you are appealing because in (a) prior semester(s) you did not have a pace of completion of 66.67% or more, and/or you did not have the minimum cumulative GPA (freshman = 1.85 and sophomore = 2.0). Identify the semester and indicate the circumstance. Attach additional copies of this page if needed.

Circumstance:

- Daycare Problems Illness or Injury Death of Close Family Member
- Transportation Problems Work Schedule Change
- Other Unforeseen Circumstance

Semester (including year): _____

Circumstance:

- Daycare Problems Illness or Injury Death of Close Family Member

Step B: Attach a type-written statement which explains the following
(Appeals submitted without the required written statement will be denied.)

The statement must clearly explain how the extenuating circumstances impacted you in each semester listed):

- What were the extenuating circumstances that occurred during each semester listed in Step A which prevented you from successfully completing all of your classes and/or completing your program within the maximum timeframe;
- What has changed that will allow you to successfully complete all classes in the future; and,

Step C: Attach documentation which confirms the circumstance you indicated.

- Meet with an academic advisor and complete the Academic Plan form and a degree audit and schedule the sequence you plan to successfully complete your degree/certificate at MACC. Required for all appeals.
- Carefully consider the courses in which you enroll. For example:
 - if you have not completed the required Math and/or English courses required for your degree, you should enroll in them first; the SAP Appeal committee may require you to enroll and complete those courses as a restriction of your financial aid reinstatement; also,
 - if you choose to enroll in more than 15 credit hours and/or eight-week classes, you must address your understanding of the workload which will be expected of you in your written statement (described above).
- Discuss and establish a plan for improving cumulative GPA, such as repeating coursework in which you received unsatisfactory grades. Recommended for all students with unsatisfactory CGPA.
