What is the LARC?

The LARC combines MACC's Library and Academic Resource Center to provide a convenient place for students to study, research, do homework, and get free help from tutors. Each LARC has access to computers, printers, scanners, research databases, tutors, and much more. Stop by and see what your LARC has to offer!

LARC Hours/Locations:

Each MACC location has a LARC. Hours can vary by location and semester, for current information on hours, please see our website: <https://www.macc.edu/services/library-academic-resource-center/>.

Library Resources

The LARC has many resources to help you with your coursework. You must present your MACC student ID if you need to check out a book or any other materials from the LARC.

Finding/Checking Out Books

MACC's Library collection is home to approximately 20,000 books, most of which are housed at our Moberly location. The LARC provides access to two different library catalogs from which students can search for and request library books. You can look for and check out MACC books in Moberly, or have them sent to a different MACC location to be picked up. All books have a three week check out limit. Go to: www.macc.edu/library-resources.

Fiction/ Non-Fiction Collection: the LARC has a small fiction collection. This collection is based upon literary classics that are most often read in literature classes at MACC. The library also has a non-fiction collection that holds books based on hundreds of academic topics students might consider when conducting research for class projects.

Reference: the LARC in Moberly has a designated room with several reference materials ranging from encyclopedias, dictionaries, maps, and even newspapers and periodicals. These materials cannot be checked out as they are considered "library use only" materials.

Textbooks on Reserve (library use only): Students are able to borrow from a small selection of general education textbooks from the LARC at all locations, but must show a valid student ID in order to do so. All text books must be used in the LARC only.

Supplies to Borrow (library use only): Calculators, headphones, and webcams can also be borrowed with a student ID. They can be used in the LARC only.

Library Databases

The library provides access to many databases, including EBSCO Complete, GALE databases, and:

- Academic Search Complete
- Associate Programs Source
- Book Collection Nonfiction
- Business and Company ASAP
- Business Source Premier
- Business Insights Essentials
- Child Development & Adolescent Studies
- CINAHL Plus with Full Text
- Environment Complete
- Humanities International Complete
- Medline
- GALE in Context: US History
- GALE in Context: World History
- Literature Resource Center
- Professional Development Collection (Education)
- And many more!

To Login to Library Resources:

The screenshot shows the login interface for MACC (Moberly Area Community College). At the top right is the MACC logo with the tagline "the college for you.". Below the logo, the text reads "Sign in with your Moberly Area Community College account". There are two input fields: "Username" with a placeholder "Email address or username" and "Password" with a placeholder "Password". A purple "Sign in" button is centered below the fields. A link "Problems signing in?" is located below the button.

Use the same username and password you use for Canvas!

MOBIUS

MOBIUS is a consortium that allows students to search for and request library books, DVDs, and audiobooks from other public and academic libraries. MOBIUS books can be delivered to any of MACC's locations: Moberly, Columbia, Kirksville, Mexico, or Hannibal. Students can access MOBIUS through the library website or by visiting this link <http://searchmobius.org/>

When requesting a MOBIUS item, you will need to select "MOBIUS - Moberly Area Community College". Then, you will sign in and select which MACC campus location you plan to pick the item up at. Input both your first and last name where it asks for your name. Your MOBIUS ID is your MACC student ID number expanded to eight digits by adding zeros to the left and "macc" to the right of the ID number.

MOBIUS Login Example:

Username: Jane Smith

ID Number/Campus Code: 00123456macc

(Note: If your student ID number is five digits long, you would add three zeroes to the left, and if it is seven digits long, you would only add one zero to the left.)

OverDrive

OverDrive is a collection of eBooks and audiobooks that we share with other MOBIUS libraries. They are available through the Libby app on your phone or in a web browser on your computer. OverDrive can be accessed from the LARC website: <https://www.macc.edu/library-resources>.

Computer Access

LARC offers access to computers and Wi-Fi. Students must have a student ID and current username and password in order to use the computers in the LARC.

Printer/Scanner Usage

Black and White Printer: Free when technology fee paid when registering for MACC courses.

Color Printer: 35 cents per printed page (Moberly LARC)

Students may also use the LARC scanners to make copies, this service is free. Copier machines are available at each campus location, but not all machines can be found in the LARC.

Small Group Study Rooms

Small study rooms are available at most LARC locations for use by students working on group projects or simply needing a quiet space to study.

Library Help

LARC staff are happy to answer any questions you have about the library (logging in, searching databases, ordering a MOBIUS book, etc). If you need help or have a question, please email LARChelp@macc.edu.

Free Tutoring/Virtual Tutoring

Free tutoring by CRLA certified and peer tutors is available at all MACC LARC locations. Tutor schedules are available on the LARC website (<https://www.macc.edu/tutoring-services/>) and show what courses tutors can help with and when tutors are available. All tutors wear a red vest so you can easily find them in the LARC. No appointments are necessary for walk-in tutoring.

If you can't come to campus or a tutor is at a different MACC location, virtual tutoring is also available via Zoom by appointment. To make an appointment, or ask questions about LARC tutoring services, please email LARChelp@macc.edu or fill out the form on the LARC website to make an appointment. You can also visit the Tutoring Resources page for more information: <https://www.macc.edu/tutoring-services/>

Tutors can help with:

- Study Skills
- Citations
- Math
- Writing
- And So Much More!
