

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN TEACHING

When students complete an Associate of Arts in Teaching (AAT) at MACC they will be able to:

1. Explain how students learn, develop, and differ in their approaches to learning in various projects.
2. Present planning and curriculum development documents.
3. Share definitions of examples of formative and summative assessment strategies that assess student progress.

This is our program promise.
