Initial math placement is determined by a placement assessment process. Please see www.macc.edu/testing for information regarding placement.

Course meets the math requirement for Associate of Arts degree.

Students should consult with an MACC advisor as well as their receiving institution to ensure the appropriate math pathway is selected.