180-Day CTE Graduate Follow-Up Summary

Summer 2024 | Fall 2024 | Spring 2025

Purpose of 180-Day CTE Graduate Follow-Up Summary

The purpose of the graduate follow-up survey for career programs in Missouri is to collect, verify, and report employment and educational outcomes of program graduates, typically six months after graduation. This survey, required by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE), supports state accountability efforts by evaluating whether career and technical education programs are effectively meeting student needs. The collected data also informs state performance funding decisions and helps ensure that districts align their programs with workforce and postsecondary education expectations.

How Data is Collected

Graduate follow-up data—including employment status, continuing education enrollment, and salary information—are collected through a secure online survey. To encourage participation and ensure accurate reporting, graduates receive multiple email reminders with clear instructions for completing the survey. This process helps the institution maintain meaningful and up-to-date information about graduate success and career advancement.

Every effort is made to gather complete data from all graduates. In addition to the online survey, program faculty and staff follow up with phone calls and personalized emails to encourage responses and address any questions. These additional efforts help ensure that as many graduates as possible are included, supporting the accuracy and completeness of reported outcomes.
