

2026-2027 Conflicting Information Resolution Form Household

Student Name	MACC Student ID
--------------	-----------------

You are receiving this form because during a recent review of your financial aid file, we discovered you may have provided information on your Verification Form and Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) which the Federal Government considers to be “conflicting information”. To resolve this situation, you must answer the questions on this form, submit supporting documentation as indicated, and return to the Financial Aid Office before we can complete file review and confirm the accuracy of your financial aid award. Please note, we may request additional documentation and statements if additional conflicting information is discovered. If your financial aid award changes as a result, we will notify you of the changes and the resolution required.

Family Information

☐ Dependent

(If you were required to provide parent information on FAFSA)

List the people in your parents’ household, including:

- Yourself
- Your parent(s) (even if you do not reside in their home)
- Your Parent’s dependent children if they live with your parent or live apart due to a period of temporary absence (e.g., college enrollment) and parent provides and will continue to provide, more than half their support between July 1, 2026 and June 30, 2027.

If you are confused about who is considered your parent, see the “Who Is My Parent” brochure at www.macc.edu/financial-aid-forms

☐ Independent

(If you did not have to provide parent information on FAFSA)

List the people in your household, including:

- Yourself, and your spouse if you have one
- Your dependent children (if you provide more than half of their support)

Include other people as part of your family only if:

They lived with you (or your parents) and received more than half their support from you (or your parents) at the time you completed your student aid application -AND- they will continue to receive more than half their support from you (or your parents) from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2027. Foster children may be included if they can be claimed as a dependent on your federal tax return; foster children may not be included if the foster care system, state or other entity provides more than half of their support. If you or your parents (if dependent), were separated at the time the FAFSA was completed, you must complete the MACC Proof of Separation form (found online at www.macc.edu/financial-aid-forms). You may attach an additional sheet, if necessary.
