Why are you receiving this request? The U. S. What do you need to do? In order to resolve this situation, you must answer the questions on this form and submit supporting documentation as indicated, and return all parts to the Financial Aid Office. We may request additional documentation and statements if additional conflicting information is discovered – respond to all requests promptly.

What are the consequences? We MUST receive these documents in order to confirm the accuracy of information reported on your FAFSA.
