You are receiving this form because your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for this additional process to complete your initial application for federal, state, and institutional student financial aid. Your eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined without this information. Refer to the Checklist below for instructions on what you need to do. This process may take 10-15 business days to complete.

QUESTIONS

Is there a deadline for Verification?

Your eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined until verification is complete – so the deadline you should adhere to is: “AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.” If you need financial aid to help you pay for your college expenses (tuition, fees, books, etc.), then it is in your best interest to complete the instructions within the Checklist as soon as possible. (Keep in mind, tuition/fees are due by the first day of each semester.)

Federal regulations allow applicants up to 120 days after the last day of attendance to complete Verification for Federal Pell Grant consideration only; however, if financial aid eligibility cannot be determined while you are enrolled, you may be charged a late payment fee, be dropped from your classes, or sent to collections, per the institution’s policy for non-payment.

How did I get selected for Verification?

The U.S. Department of Education (DOE) requires reviews of federal student aid applications to check the accuracy of the data. In some cases, the college may verify more applications by using our own selection criteria. Or, it may be needed to resolve conflicting data. Please Note: the DOE may select your application at a later date for Verification of additional items. If this happens to you, you must complete the subsequent request to be eligible for federal and state financial aid programs and you may lose aid previously awarded if you do not comply.

Who reviews my file?

All forms used in Verification are sent to the Financial Aid Office at MACC. A financial aid administrator will compare information on the documents. All information is confidential.

What if conflicting information or mistakes are found?

If any items are found to be conflicting with information originally reported on your FAFSA, additional supporting documentation will be requested to resolve the issue(s). If any items have to be corrected, the Financial Aid Office at MACC will send changes to the U.S. Department of Education’s FAFSA Partner Portal electronically. Corrections could affect financial aid estimates sent to you earlier. The Financial Aid Office will send you a revised Award Letter if any amounts change. You should not make any changes after the new transaction is processed.
