What is the LARC?

The Library and Academic Resource Center combines library and tutoring services to create a place for students to study, do research, work on homework, and get help from peer tutors. Each LARC location has access to computers, printers, scanners, research databases, tutors, and much more. Stop by and see what your LARC has to offer!

LARC Hours/Locations:

Each MACC campus has a LARC location. Hours can vary by campus and semester. For current information on hours, please see the LARC webpage: <https://www.macc.edu/services/library-academic-resource-center/>.

Library Resources

The LARC has many resources to help you with your coursework. You must present your MACC STUDENT ID CARD if you need to check out a book or any other materials from the LARC.

Finding/Checking Out Books

MACC's book collection is home to approximately 20,000 books, most of which are housed at the Moberly location. You can look for and check out MACC books, or have them sent to another MACC location to be picked up. All MACC books have a 28 day check out limit with two renewals.

Fiction/Non-Fiction Collection: the LARC has a small fiction collection. This collection is based upon literary classics that are most often read in literature classes at MACC. The library also has a non-fiction collection that contains books based on hundreds of academic topics students might consider when conducting research for class projects.

Reference: the LARC in Moberly has a designated room, Quiet Study Room 214, with several reference materials ranging from encyclopedias, dictionaries, maps, and even newspapers and periodicals. These materials cannot be checked out as they are considered “library use only” materials. This room is designated for testing, and must remain quiet at all times.

Textbooks on Reserve (library use only): Students are able to borrow from a small selection of general education textbooks from the LARC at all locations, but must show a valid MACC Student ID Card in order to do so. All textbooks must be used in the LARC only.

Supplies to Borrow (library use only): Calculators, headphones, and webcams can also be borrowed with a Student ID Card. They can be used in the LARC only.

Library Databases

The library provides access to many databases, including EBSCO Complete, GALE databases, and:

- Academic Search Complete
- Associate Programs Source
- Book Collection Nonfiction
- Business and Company ASAP
- Business Source Premier
- Business Insights Essentials
- Child Development & Adolescent Studies
- CINAHL Ultimate
- Environment Complete
- Humanities International Complete
- Medline
- GALE in Context: US History
- GALE in Context: World History
- Literature Resource Center
- Professional Development Collection (Education)
- And many more!

To Log into LARC Resources:

MOBIUS

MOBIUS is a consortium that allows students to search for and request physical library books, DVDs, and more from public and academic libraries. MOBIUS items can be delivered to any of MACC's locations. Students can access MOBIUS through the LARC webpage:

<https://openrs.searchmobius.org/search>.

When requesting a MOBIUS item, select your institution, Moberly Area Community College. Then sign in with your MACC Canvas Login. Using your email address will not allow you to sign in. After logging in, you will select which MACC location you plan to pick the item up at.

OverDrive

OverDrive is a collection of eBooks and audiobooks that are shared with other MOBIUS libraries. They are available through the Libby app on a phone or tablet. OverDrive can be accessed from the LARC website: <https://www.macc.edu/services/library-academic-resource-center/>.

Films on Demand

Films on Demand contains digital academic videos such as historical documentaries and interviews.

SWANK

SWANK is a digital collection of the Top 1000 Academic Films. These films are great tools for research in your academic studies.

Learning Express Library

Provided by MOREnet, the Learning Express Library is a free tool to take practice tests, build resumes, enhance core success skills, and more. These resources have test preparation with exams such as ACT, SAT, ACCUPLACER, CLEP, GRE, LSAT, and more. You can also find academic tutorials and eBooks ranging in a variety of subjects. Use your MACC Credentials to register and log into this resource for free. Access the Learning Express Library here: <https://www.macc.edu/study-tips-tools/>

Computer Access

The LARC offers access to computers and Wi-Fi. Students must have a current MACC Student ID and username and password in order to use the computers in the LARC. All LARC computers have Lockdown Browser equipped on them.

Printer/Scanner Usage

Wireless printing is available for students. Students may use the LARC copiers to make copies or scan items directly to their email. Copier machines are available at each campus, but not all machines can be found in the LARC.

Small Study Rooms

Small study rooms are available at most LARC locations for use by students working on group projects or simply needing a quiet space to study.

LARC Help

LARC staff are happy to answer any questions you have about the LARC (logging in, searching databases, ordering a MOBIUS book, etc). If you need help or have a question, please email LARChelp@macc.edu.

Free Tutoring/Virtual Tutoring

Free tutoring by CRLA certified peer tutors is available at all LARC locations. Tutor schedules are available on the LARC webpage (<https://www.macc.edu/tutoring-services/>) and show what courses tutors can help with and when tutors are available. All tutors wear a red vest so you can easily find them in the LARC. No appointments are necessary for walk-in tutoring.

If you are unable to come in person or a tutor is at a different MACC campus, virtual tutoring is available, via Zoom by appointment. Fill out the Appointment Request Form on the LARC webpage to schedule an appointment. You can also visit the Tutoring Services page for more information:

<https://www.macc.edu/tutoring-services/>

Tutors can help with:

- Study Skills
- Citations
- Math
- Writing
- And So Much More!
