This course provides instruction in emergency first aid procedures, including basic life support; resuscitations; control of bleeding; and treatment of shock, wounds, and fractures. Additional instruction is provided in procedures to follow in other medical emergencies and environmental emergencies.

Text/Course Materials

Purpose of Course

This course provides instruction in emergency first aid procedures, including the role of the lay trained first aid provider; hands-only basic life support; control of bleeding; treatment of shock; treatment of various injuries to the body; and treatment of medical emergencies including diabetes, stroke, poisoning, substance abuse/misuse and heat/cold related illnesses. Additional instruction is provided in procedures to follow in other medical emergencies and environmental emergencies.

Course Objectives

- Define the role of a trained lay first aid responder within the Emergency Medical System.
- Demonstrate the skills to safely assess a situation and person then provide basic first aid care to a person in need following the Emergency Action Check-Call-Care steps.
● Recognize life threatening emergencies and demonstrate provision of basic first aid care for these situations.
● Recognize various potential injuries to soft tissue, musculoskeletal system, extremities, head, neck, spine, chest, abdomen and pelvis. Demonstrate basic first aid in response to these injuries.
● Identify medical emergencies including diabetic emergencies, stroke, poisoning, anaphylaxis, bites/stings, substance abuse/misuse, and heat/cold related illnesses. Describe the basic first aid steps in responding to these medical emergencies.

Connection with Health Science Division (HSD) Outcome Statement

In compliance with MACC’s HSD outcomes, the student who successfully completes this course will be able to:
1. Demonstrate effective written and oral communication through the demonstration of basic first aid responses to a variety of emergency situations.

Schedule of Student Assignments/Activities

Please see Canvas calendar and modules for due dates. All due dates are considered firm. Late and/or incomplete work may result in a significant grade reduction. Exceptions related to late work are covered under the Late Work Policy.

- Discussion posts are typically due on Tuesday of each respective unit week, with meaningful replies to at least 2 other students by the following Sunday. Failure to submit the initial post or the replies to classmates by the due date, but made within 24 hours following the due date, will result in a 50% deduction of point. Submissions made after the 24-hour grace window, will receive zero points.
- Failure to submit skill demonstrations by due date, but made within 24 hours following the due date, will result in 50% reduction in earned points. Submissions made after the 24-hour grace window, will receive zero points.
- Exams are open to students for 48 hours. Exams that are not completed during this window of open time will receive a zero for the grade. Late exams will not be administered. Exams will need to be taken through Lockdown Browser and with Respondus Monitor.
- The Final exam dates are set and deadlines are considered firm. Failure to timely schedule and complete within the open window will result in zero points.

COLLEGE POLICIES

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all class sessions for which they are enrolled. The College reserves the right to drop or withdraw students from courses due to lack of attendance.

Students need to be aware that dropping/being dropped from a course and their last date of attendance in the course may impact their financial aid.

MACC faculty are required to track attendance and report lack of attendance. An instructor must complete the appropriate steps to drop a student within one week following the student’s violation of the attendance policy. Additionally, a student’s attendance rate will be calculated based upon the first day the academic session begins (not the student’s date of enrollment in the course). If a student does not attend a course as defined below, the student will be dropped as “Never Attended.”

Term Length Drop Calculations

16-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive weeks of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

8-week: Any student who misses one (1) consecutive week of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

4-week: Any student who misses two (2) consecutive days of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

Intersession: Any student who misses one (1) day of class will be dropped from the course by the instructor unless acceptable justification is provided by the student and the student still has the opportunity to be successful in the course.

Acceptable justification may include, but is not limited to, family emergencies, illness or injury, college-approved co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, and religious holidays.

Simply logging into the Learning Management System (Canvas) and/or accessing the course and course related material does not constitute active participation for the online component of hybrid courses or for online courses. (Policy Handbook, I.090 & M.095)
Academic Dishonesty

MACC board policy is as follows: “Academic dishonesty by students damages institutional credibility and unfairly jeopardizes honest students; therefore, it will not be tolerated in any form.” Forms of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following: violations of copyright law, plagiarism, fabrication, cheating, collusion, and other academic misconduct. Incidents of dishonesty regarding assignments, examinations, classroom/laboratory activities, and/or the submission of misleading or false information to the College will be treated seriously. The procedure for handling academic dishonesty is outlined in the Student Handbook (Policy Handbook M.010). In cases of alleged academic dishonesty, the burden of proof is on the student, not on the instructor.

Student Email

MACC Mail is the official student email system at MACC. Official college communication is sent via this email system. Students are responsible for checking their MACC Mail account regularly. Students may also receive notifications and reminders from MACC through the online learning platform. However, students should remain aware that the online learning platform messaging system and MACC Mail (student email) system are two separate systems.

ADA Statement

Students who have disabilities that qualify under the Americans with Disabilities Act may register for assistance through the Office of Access and ADA Services. Students are invited to contact the Access Office to confidentially discuss disability information, academic accommodations, appropriate documentation and procedures. For more information, please call either the Moberly office at (660) 263-4100 x 11240 or the Columbia office at (573) 234-1067 x 12120, or visit our web page at http://www.macc.edu/services/access-office.

Title IX Statement

MACC maintains a strict policy prohibiting sexual misconduct in any form, including sexual harassment, sexual discrimination, and sexual violence. All MACC employees, including faculty members, are considered mandated reporters of sexual misconduct and as such are expected to contact the Title IX Coordinator when they become aware, in conversation or in writing, of an incident of sexual misconduct. For more information on this policy or to learn about support resources, please see http://www.macc.edu/sexual-misconduct-policy or contact Ms Cheryl Lybarger, MACC’s Title IX Coordinator, at 660-263-4110, ext. 11369 or CherylLybarger@macc.edu.
